You're present with us, and we acknowledge Your power; You are our God. You're actively working in this place, and we praise You for it. You are the Way Maker, Miracle Worker, Promise Keeper, and Light in darkness - that's who You are. You touch every heart, heal every hurt, mend every brokenness, and turn lives around. You are the same One who is always working, even when we can't see or feel it. Your work never stops; You're always moving, always acting, always working. Even in our uncertainty, we know that You're still working - unseen, yet unceasingly present. Our God, You are our Way Maker, Miracle Worker, Promise Keeper, Light in the darkness. In the darkness, there is only one truth: You are a way maker, a miracle worker, and a promise keeper. That is who You are. Despite the shadows that surround me, Your presence is a beacon of light, illuminating my path. Here you are, working in me, transforming my heart with every passing moment. I see You move, gently yet powerfully, touching my life with love. My response is simple: I will adore You. Here you are, healing my heart, and for that, I am grateful. You are miraculous, a way maker who clears the obstacles of life. Your promises are a shield against uncertainty, a reminder that You are always faithful. In darkness, You shine bright, illuminating the unknown with the light of hope. My God, that is how You are: marvelous, capable, and loving. Here you are, working in me, guiding me through life's trials. Even when I cannot see what lies ahead, Your promises remain a source of strength, a testament to Your unwavering commitment to my well-being. Miraculous, indeed, is the way You make a way through every challenge. Promises kept and love shared: that is how You are, My God. Here you are, touching my heart with the gentle force of Your grace. And for all these blessings, I will adore You. That's who You are: faithful, powerful, and loving. And even though life may seem dark at times, know this truth: here you are, moving in me, keeping promises, making a way through every moment. My God, that is how You are: a constant reminder of Your love, no matter what lies ahead. My faith in You remains unshaken, My God, because I know that You are a miracle worker, clearing the path and lighting the way. That's how you are. And so, here you are, touching my heart, healing it, making me whole. You are miraculous, indeed. Your presence is a promise kept, a miracle in every moment. Even though I may not see clearly, You are always working, moving in ways both seen and unseen. My God, that is how You are: loving, gentle, yet powerful enough to overcome any obstacle. That's who You are: a way maker, a miracle worker, and the ultimate promise keeper. Here you are, healing my heart, guiding me through darkness with Your light. I will adore You, not just for what You do, but for who You are: loving, faithful, and always present in every moment of my life. And so, here you are, touching my heart, transforming my life with the power of love. My God, that is how You are: a source of hope in darkness, a promise kept in every moment. Aunque no pueda ver, siempre estás trabajando. You're always working, even when I can't see. Siempre estás, siempre estás obrando. You are always working, making a way. Cumples promesas. You keep your promises. Luz en tinieblas. Light in darkness. Mi Dios, así eres Tú. My God, that's how You are. Solo así eres Tú. That's how you are. Así eres Tú. You are always working, making a way. Cumples promesas. You keep your promises. Luz en tinieblas. Light in darkness. Mi Dios, así eres Tú. My God, that's how You are.
